1) Announcements

*The Alliance Education Foundation would like to get a 'speakers Bureau' databa se set up. See Bill with your topics to be discussed. taba

*The GLBTA is having a movie night. We did get the date changed to Monday, Mar ch 24th. The movies to be shown are; "It's My Party" at 7:30 and "Go Fish" at 9:30. Please everyone come join us. Please announce where and when you can!

*As you can see the GLBA is now the GLBTA!!!!!!

*The Resource Brochure is ready and hopefully by the time you read this we'll all be having a folding party!

2) Approval of the minutes for 10 February 1997. Minutes approved!

3) Symposium update

*The President is giving $500.00 and the Opening Address! President Carothers at the advisement of the committee will address a letter to the staff and facul ty encouraging them to attend the symposium. The Safe Zone Sticker Campaign an d the Resource Brochures will also be included.

*The program needs names for the names page (now that does make a whole lot of sense). Please ask your friends colleagues etc. And upon receipt of a conform ation don't forget to say thank you and 'show me the money'. Make checks payab le to the H&H Committee. Adds. Gay and gay friendly businesses to advertise.
Also private businesses and services. The first page of the program will be a Forward from the committee and a blurb about the Safe Zone stickers.

*On the program (after all is said and done) The Friends/Patrons/Benefactors pa ge will read, Cons/Friends/Benefactors. No one will be the wiser shhh er...shhh h

*Holly suggested we write letters to the editor concerning the symposium.
Amy Black and Melissa Lovering have offered to do so.

THE END

ps hope everyone is well rested!!!!!!!

pps this computer is wack. It's not my fault this time anyway.
